PALMERS FINE ART

Established in the 1980s, Palmers Fine Art is recognised as a high quality provider of national and international art transportation services.

We offer a discreet, consultative service, especially tailored to meet the needs of the clients we serve such as galleries, museums, private collectors, art institutions, exhibition and event companies, art fairs and auction houses.

With a modern, fully equipped climate and humidity controlled fleet of vehicles and a national network of high security, climate and humidity controlled art vaults, we can confidently offer a secure, safe and affordable transportation and storage service for any piece or collection of artworks.

SECURE STORAGE

Our Australasian network of 18 dedicated storage vaults and 42 storage facilities offer long and short term storage solutions and

- Sophisticated security systems - 24 hour external monitoring and patrols
- Restricted monitored access and entry
- CCTV surveillance – internal and external
- Monitored VESDA fire systems
- Painting racks
- Humidity control options
- Climate control options
- Electronic inventory management and tracking

PREPARATORY SERVICES

Palmers Fine Art specialises in the technically appropriate packing of art pieces, working to international gallery and museum standards.

Our professional team of art technicians and art handlers will assess your packing, transportation and storage needs based on your requirements and then recommend the most appropriate and cost effective solution.

We offer a wide range of ready made cases and crates or can custom build crates to suit any piece of artwork. The materials we use are specifically sourced to meet both demand for safe transit and environmental considerations.

As experts in the field, our staff know how to prepare and protect any piece or collection from the harmful environmental effects of temperature, humidity and light.

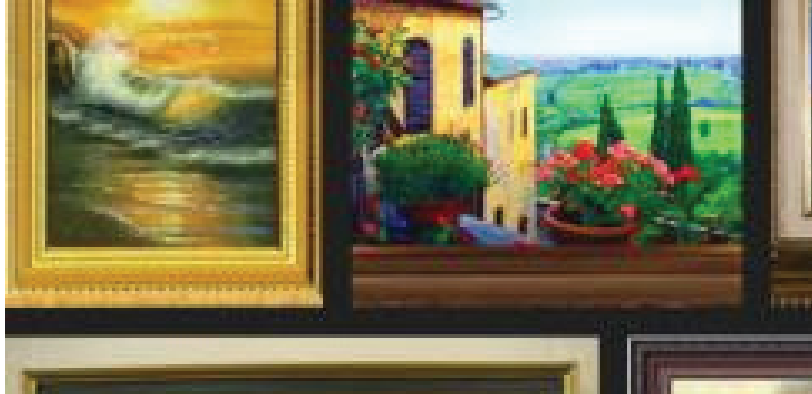

We know that the transportation of fine art is by nature a delicate and demanding business, that's why we provide the very best in professional skill and care.
